

The Department of Housing and Urban Development, celebrating its 30th birthday in 1995, is responsible for Federal housing programs, improving and developing the Nation's communities, and enforcing fair housing laws. Under Secretary Henry G. Cisneros, the Department has undertaken a major Reinvention effort to improve its services to the American people, and an important part of that transformation is providing quality information to consumers and customers. Keep watching this Home Page to monitor our progress!

What's New at HUD

News Releases, major Departmental initiatives, and the Daily Focus Message from Secretary Henry Cisneros contain current information about initiatives and accomplishments at HUD.

You can download The President's Urban Policy Report (280Kb). This file is in WordPerfect 5.1 format. To download this file, press the Shift key and click on the link if you are using Netscape's Navigator web browser. If you are using a different browser, please refer to the manual to download the file.

Executive Summaries of Consolidated Plans containing community information are available for selected communities across the United States.

HUD's Tampa Home Page is the first of many satellite pages. The office serves twelve counties in and around the Tampa Bay area of the State of Florida.

The People and Programs that Make HUD Work

Secretary Henry G. Cisneros and key Principal Staff guide the Department's employees. While HUD's headquarters is located in Washington DC, most of HUD's programs are operated through the 81 Field Offices, located across the country. Ten Secretary's Representatives assist the Secretary in overseeing HUD's Field operations. Phone numbers of HUD employees are available in the HUD personnel directory.

Information about HUD programs under the following organizations is available: Community Planning and Development, Housing (FHA), Public and Indian Housing, Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity, Policy Development and Research, and the Government National Mortgage Association.

Doing Business with HUD

- Notices of Funding Availability \(NOFAs\)
NOFAs are issued whenever HUD has funds to distribute through a competitive application process. Click here to see a list of current NOFAs.
- HUD Asset Sales
HUD is selling both single family and multifamily assets. You can find out what's for sale and how you can buy these assets.
- Electronic Data Interchange
Many mortgage bankers and lenders are using EDI to process financial and program information electronically.

HUD's Inspector General

HUD's Inspector General conducts audits of HUD programs and activities funded by HUD.

Links to Other Sites

Links to sites with HUD information, Federal Departments, and other interesting sites.

Internet Help Resources

